AEGIDIUS died in 465

A stroke of good fortune for the Visigoths
As a result of his death they were able to launch a counteroffensive and conquer Roman territory along the Rhine River.

465

About the same times the Visigothic kingdom was in great distress & the Spaniards SUEVI recovered. Their new king REKISMUND first overcame the tribal conflicts among his people and was then able to establish himself as an equal negotiating partner of the Goths.

Around 465

REMISMUND married a Visigothic woman and probably became the "son in arms" of Theodoric (II)
